COACHES' COMMENTS

MICHIGAN--BO SCHEVBECHLER

Missouri's a very good football team, don't take anything away from them. But it was one of the poorest performances by one of my teams ~~in~~ from a mistakes' standpoint. We didn't block up front and we didn't give Moorhead any protection, we had the men open.

The second quarter was a nightmare and I wouldn't have believed it unless I was there. There was not ing wrong with our effort but our execution was terrible.

Missouri didn't surprise us.

The blocked punt was THE big play. It gave them a field goal and forced us to gamble on defense. Those two plays (the draw play and the blocked punt) put us out of it.

MISSOURI--DAN DEVINE

(Concerning blocked punt) We had a return on, but we sent a few people through (Bennet blocked it).

Michigan got outside of us more today than anyone else.

(Concerning man in motion) We used it for two reasons: to get to the short side of the monster defense, and Michigan is a dig-in, come-hard team and they hadn't seen this all year.

In the tunnel before the game, I couldn't believe we were that small.

The big play was in the third quarter when the score was 24-10 and we threw them for a big loss, but they called a penalty against us.
