MICHIGAN FOOTBALL FACTS
MICHIGAN vs. PURDUE

Today's game, the Big Ten opener for both schools, is the 21st in a series which dates back to 1890, and which finds Michigan holding a 13-7 advantage over the Boilermakers. Those twenty games are the fewest number of times Michigan has faced another Big Ten opponent. The two teams haven't faced each other since 1966 when Purdue won 22-21. The Boilermakers have beaten Michigan in their last five games with the last three being decided by a total of four points. The last four games between the two schools have been played in Michigan Stadium.

This is the first year Michigan hasn't opened <sup>its</sup> ~~their~~ Big 10 schedule with Michigan State since 1958 and the first they have opened with Purdue since 1948.

Michigan's defensive end Phil Seymour is dressed for the first time this season.

For the fourth consecutive time this season, Michigan shutout its opponent in the first quarter.

Tom Curtis' 21st career interception moves him into undisputed possession of second place in the all-time career interception category ahead of Michigan State's Lynn Chandnois (1946-49), Bobby Wilson of Mississippi (1946-49) and Tom Wilson of Colgate (1964-66) all of whom had twenty. Curtis now trails just Illinois' Al Brosky (1950-52) who had 29.

Tim Killian's third quarter field goal tied the Michigan career mark of seven. Killian, just a junior, ties the record held by Rick Sygar (1964-66) and Bob Timberlake (1962-64). Killian also holds the single game mark of three (Minnesota, 1968), shares the season record of five with Timberlake and Sygar, and last week kicked a 40 yarder to tie Doug Bickle for the longest.

Mandich's 10 receptions for 156 yards today has moved him ahead of Dick Rifenburg for Most Yards Gained Receiving in a career. Mandich has now totaled 1094 yards in his career 83 more yards than Rifenburg who played in 1944-6-7-8. Jack Clancy is first with 1919 and Lowell Perry is second with 1257.

Michigan's 31-20 victory over Purdue is Bo Schembechler's first victory over a Jack Nollenkopf-coached team. Last time they met was in 1965 when Purdue defeated Miami (O.) 38-0.
