FROM REFEREE JERRY HENDRICKSON ON THE INADVERTANT WHISTLE:

"There was an inadvertant whistle on the ~~XXXX~~ loose ball."

COACH BO SCHEMBECHLER, MICHIGAN:

"(on the inadvertant whistle) "I thought they were back there debating how hard he hit the kid on pass interference. I don't know what happened.

"(on the IU offensive pass interference) "Their kid must have run into him. I don't know.

"Indiana played extremely well. They are vastly improved. Their defense played very hard. Their linebackres were outstanding, and they put a little more beef up front. They tackled well in the open field.

"Indiana came at us with some differnt things we had to adjust to.

"We weren't rushed or sacked, today. Jim (Harbaugh) thought we didn,t have people open.

"We had ~~xxx~~ three extremely hard games to open the season. (when asked if Michigan was emotionally ready for this game).

"I didn't kick the field goal because they were down to one time out and if we missed, they would have still had the ball at the 30-yard line.

"We won 14-6 and I'm thinking we lost the game. (referring to line of questioning. People have got to stop thinking in the past. Just ask Nebraska."

INDIANA COACH BILL MALLORY:

"We went out to play, to win that ball game. We did not go out just to give them a good ball game, and I thought we played that way. We went out and played them hard.

"I thought we -played awfully hard the second half defensively. I thought we showed improvement. I was pleased to see the progress made defensively.

"I'm not going to take off on the official. I'm going to show some class there. That call was costly. It made it 14-6 instead of 10-6. Those are turning points.

"I have a lot of respect for Michigan because they went out and took it to us. But I thought we went out and took it to them.

"Inadvertant whistle? That's an official's error. Why should we suffer from his screw up. It had no bearing, it just shouldn't have been."
