QUOTES

MICHIGAN HEAD COACH BO SCHEMBECHLER:

RE: PLAY

"We didn't play well. An illegal man downfield cost us an 85-yard TD. We just didn't play that well in the first half and not all that better in the second."

RE: DEMETRIUS BROWN

"I thought Demetrius played really well. He led the team to accouple of TB's."

RE: BIG RUSHING PLAYS

"They tackled well in the secondary and that's the nature of their defense. The safety will make a lot of tackles."

RE: ACCOMPLISHMENTS

"First of all, you want to win the game. Second, you want to improve, a judgment will be made if we're doing the right things. Mistakes like the 85-yard touchdown being called back and not fielding a punyt will hurt us against good teams."

RE: BYRON SANDERS

"I love Sanders. I told the defense before the game that Sanders would get 100 yards. He's good and I thought we would get a lead and the defense would relax in order for him to get the yardage. He's an excellent back. I told the defense they'd get 14 points and 150 yards, with sanders having 100 of them."

NORTHWESTERN HEAD COACH FRANCIS PEAY:

RE: PLAY

"Michigan is a good football team and they don't need anyn help from us,. Michigan had outstanding field position all day. We didn't have it and we did things to hurt us."

RE: MICHIGAN'S LINES

"They're big. Size is a big factor in football. Size, athletic ability, and experience are all factors."

RE: SANDERS

"Certainly, Byron did a good job. He's an outstanding runningback and came in as well prepared for this game as any other game. Despite Byron's performance, I think the score indicated the job Michigan did."

RE: MARK MESSNER

"Messner is a fine football player. We didn't block him but nobody has."

RE: INJURIES

"Injuries amount at this time of the season. We certainly don't have any more than anyone else. Losingf Spears hurt. I think he has an hyperextended knee, we'll know more tomorrow."
