NOTRE DAME HEAD COACH BOB DAVIE (9/5/98)

"That was obviously a big, big win. When you become a head coach, you enjoy it more for other people than yourself. I am so excited for the coaches and I'm so excited for this football team, because they sacrificed so much. ... They deserve it. They've worked hard and played hard. I think they played better as the game went on, which I think shows how much work they did in the offseason."

"The two (Michigan) turnovers (early in the third quarter) really helped. They changed the momentum of that game. Both plays helped."

"Anytime you have a quarterback that can move around a little bit, the percentage of big plays goes up."

"Their quarterbacks played extremely well ... their receivers made some big-time catches."

"I told them after the game that this is a big win but it will only be big at this time next week if we handle it right and we go play well at Michigan State."

"I am really excited about this football team. I like the potential of this football team. Our defense in the first half played with a lot of heart. ... down on the goalline, we made it difficult for Michigan to score."

"I felt pretty good at halftime because I knew that number seven (Jackson) would get better in the second half, once he got feet on the ground and got some confidence."

"We talked about before the game (that) I don't want any negative thoughts or one negative word on that sideline. ... We made some mistakes but we worked the mistakes out. The big thing was staying positive. There wasn't a lot of x's and o's things going on."

"(Michigan's) missed field goals were big."

"We were able to run the football fairly well. One thing that option football does for you ... is it makes (the opponent) defend it all. And I also think it wears (the opponent) down physically."

"We've talked about 'If we do this, this and this, we'll win.' At some point, you better step up and win. ... There's a point where you have to win a big football game. ... I think (this win) jumpstarts us."

"I've seen Jarious down before but I've seen him bounce back ... (due to) his personality and competitiveness. I think he will play better as we go (this season)."

"We hoped that it was going to be hot. ... But I was concerned because we played so many snaps."

"I'm surprised that we scored so many points. ... That's why I was concerned when we made that mistake on first and goal on the two. ... But big plays allow you to score points."

Michigan Head Coach Lloyd Carr

On the game: "I think without a question that it was a game of momentum. We had some in the first half, but we didn't take advantage of the opportunities. Notre Dame got the momentum in the second half, and then we turned the ball over. We had big plays in the second half where we got the opportunities to score some points, and we didn't do it. So instead of turning the momentum around, we maintained the momentum for Notre Dame."

On his team: "We have no excuses. We didn't take advantage of the opportunities that we had in the first half when we had a chance to blow the game open. We turned the ball over too many times in the second half. Our defense got tired, and we missed four field goals. We also didn't run the ball well. The one bright spot is that we threw the ball well, but we have a long way to go and a lot of corrections to make."

On Tom Brady: "I thought that he played pretty well. He showed good poise and he threw the ball well. I thought that he showed a lot of maturity for playing as well as he did in an environment such as Notre Dame Stadium."

Notre Dame Player Quotes

Kory Minor Linebacker

On the Defense during the first half: "Our whole defense stuck together out there today. We believed we could get the job done. There is no doubt that Michigan is a good team we hung together and fought through it to win the game."

Jarious Jackson Quarterback

On his first game as the starting quarterback: " This goes in the record books in my mind. I am proud of myself, and I am really proud of this team today. I knew we could win. Now we just have to take it game by game the rest of the season."

Atry Denson Tailback

On what was said at half in the locker room: " There was not much to say at the half. We knew what we were doing wrong, and what we needed to do to win. We knew we had to capitalize on our chance during the second half and we did. During the second half we stepped it up and played like we knew we could."

Michigan Player Quotes

Tom Brady, quarterback

On his first start-- "I felt comfortable today. It is just a shame that played our hearts out there today and we still lost. A loss like this just tears our hearts out."

On the field goals attempts-- "Any time you are on the road you just want to put points on the board, and it just did not turn out for us."

On next week's game -- "You are going to see a different team out there. A tougher team and bigger team."

Tai Streets, receiver

On the game overall -- "We did not do the job today. We did not move the ball, and we needed to score more in the first half."

On Notre Dame's defense in the second half -- "You have to give Notre Dame credit. They changed up their defense, stopped the run, and came up big when they had to."

Sam Sword, linebacker

On being out of the game in the second half -- "The hardest thing was that there was nothing I could do to help the team. I felt I was letting my teammates down by not being on the field."

On Notre Dame in the second half -- "They controlled the line of scrimmage, made big runs, and stuck with the plays until the end."

1998 University of Michigan Football Michigan at Notre Dame Post-Game Notes

Streets Reaches 100 Receiving Yards at Half

Senior split end Tai Streets (Matteson, IL) reached the 100-yard receiving plateau in the first half. Streets ended the half with eight receptions for 101 yards. Streets currently has 85 career receptions and 1,350 receiving yards.

Knight Makes First Career Start

Junior flank Marcus Knight (Sylacauga, AL) started his second career game today, collecting a team-high and career-best 126 yards receiving. Knight caught five passes, including 42 and 51-yard passes from Tom Brady. His only other start came against Indiana last year, where he registered a then career-best two reception for 23 yards.

100-Yard Receiving Duo

The starting wide receiving duo of Tai Streets and Marcus Knight each gained over 100 yards receiving on the day. They became the first combination since Mercury Hayes (6 receptions for 132 yards) and Amani Toomer (eight for 128) surpassed the 100-yard receiving plateau against Penn State on Nov. 18, 1995.

Whitley Makes First Career Start and Interception

Sophomore cornerback James Whitley (Norfolk, VA) made his first career start after seeing action in all 12 games as a back-up last year. Whitley registered his first interception in the second quarter and finished the contest with seven tackles (five solo, two assists). He made his career debut as a punt returner, returning one punt for six yards.

True Freshmen First Timers

Six freshmen made their career debuts against Notre Dame. Larry Foote (Detroit, MI) was the first freshman to see action, playing on the kickoff squad after the team's first quarter field goal. Running back Justin Fargas (Encino, CA) made his offensive debut on the team's second drive. Fargas finished the game with 15 yards on four carries and returned a kickoff for 17 yards. The third freshmen to see action was cornerback Todd Howard (Bolingbrook, IL) who contributed on the punt return unit. The wide receiving tandem of David Terrell (Richmond, VA) and Marquise Walker (Syracuse, NY) both saw action offensively, tallying a reception each. Quarterback Drew Henson (Brighton, MI) was the final freshmen to enter the game, engineering a late touchdown drive in the fourth quarter in which he connected on 5-of-8 passes for 55 yards and rushing once for 17 yards..

Most Points Yielded Since 1962

The 36 points given up by the Wolverines was the most since they yielded 37 points to Purdue on Oct. 20, 1962. The points were also the most scored by Notre Dame against Michigan in the series (the previous high was 35 in 1943).

Wolverines Suffer First Season Opening Loss Since 1990

Michigan lost its first opener since the 1990 season when they lost to Notre Dame (28-24) in South Bend. The Wolverines had won five consecutive season openers and entered the game with a 6-0-1 record in the previous eight openers. The tie also came against the Irish, a 17-17 affair in 1992.

POSTGAME NOTES - Michigan at Notre Dame (September 5, 1998)
Final score: Notre Dame 36, Michigan 20

Today's game marks the 137th consecutive sellout in Notre Dame Stadium, the first 130 coming at the old 59,075 capacity and the six 1997 games at the 80,225 capacity. Today marks the Notre Dame's 185th home sellout in the last 186 games, dating back to 1964.

Notre Dame now leads the series since its resumption in 1978 by 9-7-1 while Michigan leads the overall series 16-11-1 and games at Notre Dame 7-5-1. The Irish lead in Notre Dame Stadium 5-4-1.

Jarious Jackson is the eighth straight Irish quarterback to win his first career start. The previous seven are: Tom Krug vs. Air Force in 1995, Ron Powlus vs. Northwestern in 1994, Kevin McDougal vs. Northwestern in 1993, Rick Mirer vs. Michigan in 1990, Kent Graham vs. Boston College in 1987, Tony Rice vs. Air Force in 1987 and Terry Andrysiak vs. Mississippi in 1985.

The Irish are now 2-0 when opening the season against a defending national champion. Notre Dame also beat seventh-ranked Pittsburgh 19-9 in 1977. Overall, Notre Dame is 9-7-3 when playing a defending AP or UPI national champion at some point during the season.

Notre Dame's 36 points are the most allowed by Michigan since Florida State beat the Wolverines 51-31 on Sept. 28, 1991.

Notre Dame's 36 points are most the Irish have ever scored against Michigan. The previous most came in 1943 when top-ranked Notre Dame won 35-12 at second-ranked Michigan and the most points ever by one team in the series.

Fifth-ranked Michigan is the highest-ranked visitor at Notre Dame Stadium since fourth-ranked Ohio State played at Notre Dame Stadium in 1996.

Two quarterbacks made their first career starts in a season-opening game at Notre Dame Stadium for the first time since 1963 when Notre Dame's Dennis Szot and Wisconsin's Harold Brandt quarterbacked their teams for the first time as starters.

Notre Dame has failed to score a first-half touchdown for the second consecutive game. The Irish led LSU 6-3 at halftime of the Independence Bowl on two Scott Cengia field goals.

Dan O'Leary's four-yard touchdown reception was the first touchdown of his career.

O'Leary's touchdown snapped a streak of six quarters without a touchdown for the Irish after the Irish were held to three field goals in the Independence Bowl and two in the first half against Michigan.

Autry Denson's 58-yard run on Notre Dame's first offensive play was the longest of his career, topping his 50-yard run against Pittsburgh in 1997.

Notre Dame's 17 third-quarter points are the most under a Bob Davie-coached Notre Dame team. The Irish scored 10 points in the third quarter against Pittsburgh in 1997. The 17 points are the most since Irish scored 21 points in the third quarter in the 54-20 win over Washington on Oct. 12, 1996.

After scoring just 27 third-quarter points in all of 1997, an average of just 2.1, Notre Dame scored 17 against Michigan.

Autry Denson's 154 yards rushing marked his 18th career 100-yard rushing game, inching him closer to Allen Pinkett's Notre Dame record of 21 career 100-yard rushing games.

Michigan's Tai Streets (8-101) and Marcus Knight (5-126) are the first teammates to amass over 100-yards receiving against Notre Dame since Miami's Cleveland Gary (11-130), Andre Brown (8-125) in a 31-30 Irish win on Oct. 15, 1988.

With two rushing touchdowns, Autry Denson has matched Stan Cofall with 30 career rushing touchdowns, fifth-best in Irish history.

After allowing just 89.0 yards/game in 1997, Michigan's defense yielded 280 to the Irish.

Notre Dame is the lowest-ranked team (22nd) to beat Michigan since 1996 when 22nd-ranked Northwestern beat sixth-ranked Michigan 17-16.

The last time the Irish beat a team ranked higher than Michigan (5) was a 31-24 win over top-ranked Florida State in 1993. Notre Dame beat fifth-ranked USC in 1995.

Notre Dame hands Lloyd Carr is first loss during the month of September as head coach at Michigan. Carr had won all 10 games in September prior to today's game.

Notre Dame's win has ended Michigan's winning streak at 12 games and is the first loss since a 17-14 loss to Alabama on Jan. 1, 1997 in the Outback Bowl.

The Irish are now 12-3-1 when opening the season against an A.P.-ranked team, since that poll began in 1936. The win over fifth-ranked Michigan is the first in a season opener since the top-ranked Irish beat the fourth-ranked Wolverines 28-24 in 1990.

Notre Dame is now 92-12-5 (.867) in season-openers, including 66-9-3 (.865) in season-opening games played at home. Michigan is now 98-18-3 (.836) in season openers and 16-5-1 (.750) when opening the season on the road.

Notre Dame has now won 11 of its last 12 season openers with the only loss coming to Northwestern in 1995.

Michigan starts the season 0-1 for the first time since a 28-24 loss at Notre Dame in 1990. The Wolverines had won five straight openers since a 17-17 tie at Notre Dame in 1992.

The win over the fifth-ranked Wolverines marks just the fourth time that an Irish team not ranked among the AP top 20 teams beat a top five team and the first time since a 31-16 win at top-ranked Pittsburgh in 1982.
